TAFT STANDS FIRM IN CENSUS MATTER

Discontent of Southern Republicans Has No Effect in Altering His Policy.

VIRGINIA TO GET EQUAL DIVISION

Long Conference Held at Bever ly Yesterday and Names of Many Supervisors Approved. President Lays Down Rule Keeping Active Politicians Out.

BEVERLY, MASS. August 13.—At an extended conference to-night with Secretary Nagel, of the Department of Commerce and Labor; Postmaster-General Hitchcock and L Dana Durand, Director of the Census, President Taft approved the appoint ment of 330 supervisors of the thirteenth census. The list had been prepared at Washington for the Presi dent, and the qualifications of every man were inquired into.

There has been marked discontent among some Southern Republicans over the decision of the President to divide the census patronage in the States of the "Solid South."

A Groan from Texas.

Colonei Cecil Lyon, Republican national committeeman of Texas, who came here to-day, told the President that he would rather have the State put in charge of one supervisor—algood Republican—than to divide the congressional districts with the Democrats, Colonel Lyon said the declaration of this policy on his part held good for all the States. Oklahoma, he declared, had been included with Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina and Missouri in the list of nearly doubtful States that had been set apart from

Bush was slowly and painfully working his way out of the wreck of his engine, scalded and frightfully bruised, when the few passengers who retained their senses dug into the mass of twisted and burning from to meet him. He was lifted out upon the ground and a hurried cail for physicians resulted in the discovery that there was not a doctor on the train. #### TROUBLE BREWING IN MEXICO

Reports of Unrest Persistently Circulated, Despite Official Denials.

MENICO CITY, August 13.—Rumors of troubles in the border States of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila are being persistently circulated here, despite denials. It was said to-day that Miguel Cardenas, the Governor of the State of Coahuila, who was asked to resign recently by the President, and who yesterday announced his intention of complying with the request, has changed his mind.

According to telegrams from Saltillot, the capital of Coahuila, the State Legislature adjourned without taking action on the resignation of the present Governor. WASHINGTON, D. C., August 13.—
Although the interest of the American government in the controversy between China and Japan growing out of the differences between those countries over the reconstruction of the Antung-Mukden Raliroad is largely of a passive character, yet the developments in the situation will be watched with much interest, not alone by the United States, but by the other powers as well. All are anxious that there shall be an uninterrupted continuance of the "open-door" policy, so stoutly insisted upon by Secretary Hdy, and of Chinese territorial integrity.

Naturally there will be a disposition to see whether Japan in any way violates the principles contended for by the powers, and for this reason her actions will be watched closely by them. Should such probability become evident, the time will be ripe for some very pertinent questions directed to the Japanese government as to motives and intentions.

Both Japan and China have laid before the American State Department communications setting forth their attitude in the matter of the Antung-Mulden dispute and reviewing the conditions leading up to the crisis, culminating in Japan's ultimatum to China and the latters response. These statements are intended to show clearly the predominating reasons which have actuated the respective governments in the steps they have taken, and as a communicated for information only. The time may arrive, however, when they will become valuable in any consideration of the questions at issue between China and Japan by the foreign offices of the governments to which they have been forwarded, Sutton, Jr., United States Marine Corps, the event of note was the summing up by Henry M. Davis, counsel for Mrs. Sutton, and A. E. Birney, counsel for Lieutenant Adams, Mr. Davis's argument led the judge advocate to speak briefly.

The court will sit to-morrow in private for the purpose of discussing the findings, which will be forwarded to the Navy Department at Washington, whomee the announcement of the rad suit of the inquiry will be made.

Defense of Sutton.

In summing up Mr. Davis went back to the coming of Lieutenant Sutton to Annapolls and referred to him as a "mother's offering to her country's service." He declared that sverything tended to negative the idea that young Sutton contemplated suicide. He said that the travely did not follow. Satton contemplated suicide. He said that the tragedy did not follow a drunken brawl, that Sutton's alleged former escapades shed no light on the case, and that these and other matters should never have been brought into the inquiry. He pointed to the marked difference in the testimony of Lieutenats Adams, Utley, Osterman and others.

Attacks Mrs. Sutton,
A. E. Birney, counsel for Lieutenant
Adams, compared the honor of an officer to the honor of a woman, and declared that the young lieutenants involved should be relieved of all responsibility for Sutton's death. He said the charges were based entirely upon the "frantic ravings of a woman." He denied the possibility that Lieutenant Sutton had been beaten to death, and then shot to conceal the crime, which, he said, Mr. Davis had charged by imputation at least. He attacked Mrs. Sutton, and declared she has pursued his client and his associates with "malevolent hatred," not with evidence of maternal sorrow inspiring her.

Calls Him a Coward.

Calls Him a Coward.

Branding Sutton as a "rank cow-ard," Mr. Birney strongly praised Lieu-tenant Adams for his bravery, when, as he has testified, Lieutenant Sutton fired upon him. He justified the treat-ment to which, according to his client and his brother-officers, Lieutenand Sutton was subjected, and said that all variations in their testimony as to what had occurred were fully explained by the conditions, and that if they had agreed on all points they would have been equally open to suspect picion of having conspired to pre-pare a false account of the affair. The only fair imputation of any crimi-nality at any time during the night or October 12-13, 1907, he asserted, must rest upon Lieutenant Sutton himself.

RAID COUNTERFEITERS' DEN her son committed suitage, sill further, though in just what way she is not now prespared to state.
